Read all about it...

Offered to the market with no onward chain, this fantastic two-bedroom flat presents a superb opportunity for buyers looking for a move-in-ready home with exciting potential to extend.

Set across the first floor of a beautifully converted period property, this flat is immaculately presented throughout, blending modern light-filled interiors with charming period features for the best of both worlds. The spacious landing leads to an open-plan living room and kitchen, complete with sleek, contemporary fitted units and filled with natural light from dual aspect windows. Further down the hallway, there are two generously sized bedrooms and a stylish shower room, featuring a luxurious walk-in rainfall shower.

This property also benefits from a handy bike shed to the front and a large boarded loft, providing ample storage space and the opportunity to extend into a second floor, offering the potential to increase living space in the future (STPP). This flat comes with the freehold and will be passed over as part of the purchase.
