Read all about it...

Set on a peaceful residential street just 0.6 miles from Forest Hill station, this charming 1920s-built home offers character, space, and the rare chance to own a piece of local history. Designed by renowned builder Ted Christmas, known for his quality Arts & Crafts homes, the property provides over 1,200 sqft of well-balanced living space and a lovely private garden - ideal for those seeking both comfort and convenience.

Inside, the wide entrance hall creates a welcoming first impression and sets the tone for the generous proportions throughout. The front reception room features a striking leaded light bay window and a traditional fireplace, while a separate dining room offers a bright, versatile space overlooking the garden. Beyond this, the cottage-style kitchen provides a charming backdrop for daily cooking, with scope to update or redesign if desired.

The rear garden is a real asset - an expansive green space with a patio area that's perfect for outdoor dining or relaxing. It also offers excellent potential for those looking to add a garden studio or carry out landscaping to create their ideal outdoor retreat.

The location is ideal for daily life, with well-rated schools, independent cafes, shops, and Forest Hill Pool all nearby. Several local parks are within walking distance, and excellent rail and bus connections make commuting into central London straightforward and stress-free.

With no onward chain, this is a great opportunity to secure a solid and characterful home in a rarely available spot - perfect for buyers ready to settle in and make their mark.
